

Stong College Student Government Constitution

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STONG COLLEGE STUDENT GOVERNMENT (SCSG)

Amended on February 2015

PREAMBLE

Stong College, established as the fifth college in 1969, an integral part of the York University College system, seeks to offer opportunities for all of its members to develop through active participation. The students of Stong College have formed the Stong College Student Government, this Constitution has been written to illustrate the commitment to a democratic and responsible student government. This government commits to providing opportunities for all of its members to participate in organizing and implementing clubs, athletics, social events, political and governing activities, and other events in keeping with the educational and socialization purpose of Stong College. To these ends, the members of Stong College which include the students, faculty, fellows, alumni and staff, may participate. The Stong College Student Government is responsible and accountable to all Stong College members, and shall provide a forum for each member of the Stong Community to have an equal opportunity to express her/his views.

Article I: Name of Government

1.1 The name of the organization herein constituted shall be the Stong College Student Government.

1.2 The government shall herein be referred to as the "SCSG".

Article II: Authority

2.1 The SCSG is fully empowered to and responsible for the enforcement of all regulations, Articles and By-Laws as established by this Constitution. The Constitution of the Stong College Student Government is the supreme law of the Stong College Student Government.

2.2 Section 2.1 applies only when not in conflict with the valid and applicable laws of Canada.

2.3 Affiliation with Stong College and registration in courses at York University is acknowledgement that the individual member(s) of the college accepts this Constitution, By-Laws, Articles and Regulations and are bound by the principles herein.

Article III: Interpretation

3.1 The SCSG shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of the Constitution of the SCSG and all subsidiary regulations. The SCSG shall, however, make all interpretations with regard to the following: a) Robert's Rule of Order (Newly Revised); b) interpretive precedents set by the Canadian House of Commons.

Article IV: Purpose of Government

4.1 To represent student interests and needs in all matters of concern to student well-being within Stong College and York University.

4.2 To act as a liaison between the student and other educational bodies and government organizations within the broad purpose of student government.

4.3 To ensure the safeguarding and upholding of the rights of individual members without discrimination based on race national or ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation, age, mental or physical ability, martial status, or receipt of public assistance.

4.4 To promote democratic values so that Stong students may have a meaningful impact upon their educational environment and further their personal learning

4.5 To manage the affairs of the SCSG, ensuring accountability and responsibility to the members of the SCSG.

4.6 To ensure the initiation, sponsorship, encouragement and direction of services and activities which will enhance the university experience for Stong College members and the York University community as a whole.

4.7 To ensure the promotion of communication among all entities of Stong College and any other relevant organizations.

4.8 To assist the university in organizing its resources in support of student learning.

4.9 To hold the university accountable to its obligations and responsibilities as outlined in the York University Act, 1965, and its various public statements of purpose, goals, and objectives.

Article V: Membership in the Stong Community

5.1 Membership of Stong College shall be limited to:

a) Undergraduate students enrolled in at least one "half" course at York University during the current academic year. As well, Stong College members must be registered with the Registrar's Office of York University as affiliated members of Stong College. The Master's Office shall rule in cases where questions are raised concerning membership.

b) Officers of Stong College, including the Master, Student Success Coordinators (2 members), Administrative Assistant, Residence Life Coordinator (formerly Residence Tutor), Alumni, Fellows, as well as employees of Stong College.

c) Honorary members appointed by the Master.

d) Graduate students and students from other York institutions (Osgoode or ACMAPS) may become members of the Stong Community by paying to the Stong College budget the equivalent to that paid by undergraduate members of Stong College.

5.2 Once membership has been held, it is for life unless relinquished.

5.3 All members in 5.1 may vote at a General Meeting and any ballot election held within Stong College or at a SCSG election.

Article VI: Membership and Responsibility of SCSG

A. Membership of the SCSG

6.1 The voting members of the SCSG which form the Executive Committee shall be:

- a) The Chair of the SCSG
- b) The Executive Administrator
- c) The Athletic Chair
- d) The Commuter Chair
- e) The Outreach Director
- f) The Stong College Master

- g) Stong Frosh Representative
- h) Stong Residence Representative
- i) Athletic Director
- j) Treasurer

6.2 The duties of positions (d) through (e) can be divided into a maximum of two (2) Vice-Chairs, however, each position shall constitute one (1) vote.

6.2.5 In the event that one of the Vice-Chairs is no longer part of the SCSG, the following procedure must be followed: Within two weeks of receipt of the letter of resignation, the SCSG Executive Chair must post a notice to the Stong community in reference to the member's departure. Any objections must be submitted to the Chair in writing, outlining their objection to the remaining party acting out the duties of the position alone. If any written objections are received within the allotted time frame of at least 5 working days, a vote of confidence must be held. When a vote of confidence is held, by-election procedures are followed. If a vote of confidence fails, the position is put to by-election.

6.4 Every member of the SCSG must be a member of Stong College, and must comply with Article V, Section 5.1(a). If at any point during their terms of office they fail to qualify with Article V, Section 5.1 (a), their positions shall be declared vacant and a by-election shall be held in accordance to By-Law III, Elections, of the Constitution of the SCSG.

6.5 Any member of SCSG may resign or give notice of intention to resign, either verbally in an SCSG Meeting or in writing. Any written notification shall be deemed to be addressed to the SCSG Chair. When it is determined that the written notification is genuine, the SCSG shall declare such a seat vacated (or that it shall become vacant on some future day, as indicated in the written notification).

6.6 Despite Article V, Section 6.5, the SCSG shall not accept a member's resignation if there is reason to believe that such member's resignation was not completely voluntary and, in such a case, the SCSG shall investigate the matter completely.

6.7 A member of SCSG may be removed for just cause. In the event that circumstances warrant the removal of a member for just cause, another sitting member of the SCSG shall give notice of motion at least 14 days in advance of a meeting at which the issue of impeachment will be discussed. Furthermore, the member who is the subject of a notice of impeachment shall also be given 14 days notice, and be asked to attend the meeting where the substance of the allegations are being brought forward. At the meeting where, inter alias, the matter of the allegations against a member are to be brought forward, a member of the SCSG will read the allegations, and the member against whom the allegations are being made, will have an opportunity to defend against the allegations being brought forward. After all parties have been given a reasonable chance to discuss the issue, the SCSG may proceed with a motion of impeachment if it so wishes. Notice of Motion will be given and 14 days hence the SCSG may vote to remove the member from office. Removal requires a 2/3 majority vote in favour of the motion to impeach. Removal of a SCSG member shall be done in a manner that is reasonable, equitable and fair. Grounds for removal include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

- a) Misappropriation of funds.

- e) Actions which cause severe public criticism of Stong College.
- f) Failure to sufficiently complete the duties and responsibilities as stated in this Constitution.

6.8 In the case of the resignation or removal of a SCSG member, the procedures for replacement are as follows:

- a) The vacancy must be advertised around the campus at least five (5) days prior to the selection date. If the vacant position is an elected one, then the procedures outlined in By-Law III, Elections, of the Constitution of the SCSG shall be adapted. If the vacant position is an appointed one, the procedures outlined in Article VII, Section 7.2,(I) (appointment of Vice-Chair) shall be adapted.

6.9 SCSG members under section 6.1 are subject to a probationary period, suspension or deduction of honoraria that may be enforced for actions that do not warrant impeachment.

- a) a council member may be placed under probation for committing acts that are outlined in but not limited to section 6.7 of the constitution.
- b) the executive Chair has the power to temporarily suspend a SCSG member until their case can be reviewed by the SCSG at the next SCSG meeting.
- c) The SCSG shall give notice of the disciplinary meeting at least 7 days in advance of a meeting at which the issue of discipline will be discussed. Furthermore, the member who is the subject of a notice of discipline shall also be given 7 days notice, and be asked to attend the meeting where the substance of the allegations are being brought forward. At the meeting where, inter alia, the matter the allegations against a member are to be brought forward, a member of the SCSG will read the allegations, and the member against whom the allegations are being made, will have the opportunity to defend against the allegations being brought forward. After all parties have been given a reasonable chance to discuss the issue, the SCSG may proceed with a motion of probation, suspension, or honoraria deduction.

d) After hearing from the SCSG member in question the SCSG will come together at a SCSG meeting to determine a disciplinary action whether it be enforcing a probationary period, suspending the SCSG member from Stong College and or SCSG, deducting or withholding honoraria or a combination of the aforementioned options, or not enforcing any disciplinary action.

e) The length of the probationary period or suspension is determined on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the SCSG as well as the behavior and actions that warrant the successful completion of the probationary period.

f) at the end of the predetermined probationary period the SCSG will meet at a SCSG meeting to determine whether the SCSG member under probation has successfully completed the probationary period or whether further disciplinary action will be required
